WORKSHOPS

Performance & Exam Anxiety - 9:30am

Composition with Tamara - 2:30pm

Tamara Niekudow is a multi-award-winning concert pianist, piano lecturer, and examiner at the Royal Irish Academy of Music, as well as a competition adjudicator, conductor, and composer based in Dublin, Ireland.

Tamara's name will be recognized by many budding pianists, as her delightful compositions, are a regular feature in the RIAM exam repertoire. Tamara will facilitate a composition workshop, sharing her methods, processes and inspirations with young musicians.

From Trad to Classical & back again - 2:30pm

Dr Benjamin Errington is one of the country's leading violists his career has combined classical and Traditional Irish music. Join Benjamin, founder of the Celtic Viola and Fiddle YouTube channel, as he shares his experience from Trad to Classical and back again!

Traditional Piano Accompaniment - 2:30pm

Cathal Culliney is a fiddle and piano player who has been passionate about Irish traditional music from a young age. His Masters in Irish traditional music examined how the piano has developed a collaborative role in traditional music. Join Cathal as he guides you around traditional Irish piano accompaniment.
